MAIN ENTRANCE TO THE BURMA PAVILION, WEMBLEY.

COST-0621

POST CARD.

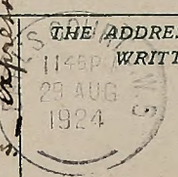
This space may be used for communication for Inland Postage and Foreign Countries.

Dearest Mrs. Parlow, Kathleen, Felix, Christopher, Bunny's & pigeons and chickens !!
This isn't a real letter, it's rather if fact this card doesn't count at all and we are going to send you a nice big, fat, letter from Holland, but we wouldn't wait so long till telling you how we enjoyed our staying with you! London looked very black and smoky and it rained all the time. We felt rather miserable. Really we can't thank you enough for the lovely days we had at Meldreth. Much, much love and a big hug for you both from Mrs

I am going to tell everybody in Holland, how lovely one can spend his holidays at a court farm of Indians! Sincerest thanks and many greetings from "the man".

They left no room for me! But

THE ADDRESS ONLY TO BE WRITTEN HERE.



Mrs. & Miss. M. K. Parlow
The Courtfarm
Meldreth
Royston. Herts.

Printed by SIR JOSEPH CAUSTON & SONS LTD. London & Eynsham. Photo Copyright.